

Walker and Trinity counties; Walker the returning county.—Horatio W. Fisher, of Huntsville, Walker county, was born in Lounds county, Alabama, July 10, 1827; educated in Loundsboro, completing his education at Chappel Hill, N. C.; moved to Texas in 1852, and settled in Walker county; was a member of the House of Representatives, in 1858; entered the Confederate army as captain of a company, in Sibley's Brigade; served in New Mexico, and subsequently under Gen. Tom Green, until the close of the war; at the close of the war, was appointed by Governor Hamilton, a justice of the peace for Walker county, which office he held until "reconstruction;" was elected to same office, in 1875; elected to the present Legislature, on the Greenback ticket, over J. P. Stirman, the Democratic nominee.